Sydney Pelagic Stats for April

Definite

Providence Petrel	100%
Wilsons Storm Petrel	100%
Wedge-tailed Shearwater	100%
Australasian Gannet	100%
Greater Crested Tern	100%
Silver Gull	100%
Flesh-footed Shearwater	94%
Short-tailed Shearwater	81%

Probable

Grey-faced Petrel	75%
Huttons Shearwater	69%
Black-browed Albatross	63%
Campbell Albatross	50%

Possible

Shy Albatross	38%
Fluttering Shearwater	38%
Gibsons Albatross	31%
Indian Yellow-nosed Albatross	31%
Huttons/Fluttering Shearwater	31%
Little Penguin	25%
Kermadec Petrel	25%
Sooty Shearwater	25%
Pomarine Skua	25%

Small chance

Bullers Albatross	19%
Brown Skua	19%
Black Petrel	13%
White-faced Storm Petrel	13%
White-tailed Tropicbird	13%
Parasitic Jaeger	13%
Long-tailed Jaeger	13%
South Polar Skua	13%
Cooks Petrel	6%
Soft-plumaged Petrel	6%
Tahiti Petrel	6%
Westland Petrel	6%
White-chinned Petrel	6%
White-necked Petrel	6%
Fairy Prion	6%
Streaked Shearwater	6%
Arctic Tern	6%
Common Tern	6%
Caspian Tern	6%
Grey Noddy	6%
Kelp Gull	6%
Blue-billed White Tern	6%

Vagrants

Not all records on this page have been authenticated therefore they should not be used in publication without further research. Data is modeled using historical sightings aboard Sydney pelagic trips dating from 1997 to the most recent trip.

Downloaded from Sydney Pelagics - https://sydneypelagics.info