Sydney Pelagic Stats for February

Definite

Pomarine Skua	100%
Grey-faced Petrel	95%
Wedge-tailed Shearwater	95%
Silver Gull	95%
Flesh-footed Shearwater	91%
Short-tailed Shearwater	91%
Greater Crested Tern	86%
Fluttering Shearwater	82%

Probable

Australasian Gannet	68%
Huttons Shearwater	64%
Sooty Tern	59%
Parasitic Jaeger	50%

Possible

Huttons/Fluttering Shearwater	41%
Sooty Shearwater	36%
Long-tailed Jaeger	32%
Goulds Petrel	27%
Streaked Shearwater	27%
White-necked Petrel	23%
Little Penguin	18%

Small chance

Black Petrel	14%
Tahiti Petrel	14%
Bullers Shearwater	14%
Common Tern	14%
Gibsons Albatross	9%
Shy Albatross	9%
Black-browed Albatross	9%
Brown Noddy	9%
Grey Noddy	9%
Snowy Albatross	5%
White-faced Storm Petrel	5%
Wilsons Storm Petrel	5%
Red-footed Booby	5%
Red-tailed Tropicbird	5%
White-tailed Tropicbird	5%
Arctic Tern	5%
White-winged Black Tern	5%

Vagrants

Baraus Petrel	2.5%

Not all records on this page have been authenticated therefore they should not be used in publication without further research. Data is modeled using historical sightings aboard Sydney pelagic trips dating from 1997 to the most recent trip.

Downloaded from Sydney Pelagics - https://sydneypelagics.info