Sydney Pelagic Stats for May

Definite

Australasian Gannet	100%
Greater Crested Tern	100%
Silver Gull	100%
Black-browed Albatross	95%
Providence Petrel	84%
Indian Yellow-nosed Albatross	79%
Wilsons Storm Petrel	79%

Probable

Campbell Albatross	74%
Short-tailed Shearwater	74%
Shy Albatross	68%
Wedge-tailed Shearwater	58%
Sooty Shearwater	53%
Bullers Albatross	47%

Possible

Gibsons Albatross	42%
Fairy Prion	42%
Flesh-footed Shearwater	42%
Fluttering Shearwater	42%
Grey-faced Petrel	37%
Huttons Shearwater	32%
Huttons/Fluttering Shearwater	32%
Little Penguin	21%
White-faced Storm Petrel	21%

Small chance

Black-bellied Storm Petrel	16%
Snowy Albatross	11%
Antipodean Albatross	11%
Northern Giant Petrel	11%
Kermadec Petrel	11%
White-fronted Tern	11%
Southern Giant Petrel	5%
Great-winged Petrel	5%
Soft-plumaged Petrel	5%
Westland Petrel	5%
Little Shearwater	5%
Streaked Shearwater	5%
Brown Skua	5%
Long-tailed Jaeger	5%

Vagrants

Salvins Prion	2.5%

Not all records on this page have been authenticated therefore they should not be used in publication without further research. Data is modeled using historical sightings aboard Sydney pelagic trips dating from 1997 to the most recent trip.

Downloaded from Sydney Pelagics - https://sydneypelagics.info